INTRODUCTION

MSC 101 Challenges in Leadership I will introduce you to the personal challenges and competencies that are critical for effective leadership and communication. You will learn how the personal development of life skills such as cultural understanding, goal setting, time management, mental/physical resiliency, and stress management relate to leadership, officership, and the Army profession. The focus is on developing basic knowledge and comprehension of Army leadership dimensions, attributes and core leader competencies while gaining an understanding of the ROTC program, its purpose in the Army, and its advantages for the student.

Sage Research Methods database, which is a web-based research methods tool that covers quantitative, qualitative and mixed methods, helps design research projects, understand a particular method or identify a new method, and write up research. JSU students can also use InterLibrary Loan Service. A list of computer labs on campus can be access here.

PRINT SOURCES

Books are important sources of basic information on a topic, providing necessary definitions, background information, and historical information. Books provide a foundation for research which can be supplemented by more current information from periodical articles. Books may also contain useful bibliographies which may lead to additional sources of research. When looking for books, use proper term(s) or subject term(s) under the Library Catalog: http://jaxcat.jsu.edu/vwebv/searchSubject

Featured subject term(s) for this course could be but not limited to:
